

Cultural Functions

2005

The complex of Cultural Functions consists of places, objects and phenomena. It might be interpreted as the most significant element of an urban structure, which manifests itself as the creative power of any metropolis, city or town.

Trafalgar Square in London

© Vario Burnos, 2007